The Stanly County Partnership for Children (SCPC) Board continues to need comprehensive program monitoring to be able to make informed decisions on how to allocate the Partnership's limited resources to effectively address the needs of children and families in Stanly County. NCPC and SCPC policies require programmatic and fiscal monitoring of all funded activities. Monitoring will assure that funds are spent on the service that is approved and contracted by SCPC and NCPC. Program Coordination will ensure the most efficient delivery of services to patrons while avoiding duplication of services. Community Outreach is needed so that all eligible Stanly County residents in need have the opportunity to receive	12 program activities provided by 3 outside service providers and 5 in-house service providers. Stanly County Partnership for Children Board Stanly County Partnership for Children administrative staff Community at Large including NCPC	Site visits per contract will be made for programmatic monitoring.
